US Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act, of 2010 - Also known as Conflict Minerals

In 2010, the U.S. Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act was passed concerning “conflict minerals” originating from the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) or adjoining countries. The SEC published final rules associated with the disclosure of the source of conflict minerals by U.S. publicly traded companies.

Hydraulics, Inc. is a privately held company and as such are not subject to the Conflict Minerals rules and reporting requirements. However, we are committed to helping our customers comply with their reporting requirements.

Hydraulics, Inc. represents that based on all available information known to Hydraulics, Inc., our products and production processes are free of “conflict minerals” including Tantalum, Tin, Gold, and Tungsten.
